September 2011

Welcome Back !

Our first day of school, Tuesday, August 9th, began with worship in chapel. Next Mr. Olmstead spent time with the students going over procedures and rules.

We are excited about the new school year and are looking forward to having your students as part of our student body.

QCCS Welcomes Our 2011-2012 International Students

(Back Row) Fransiska Halenga, Fransi, has a 17 year old sister Kathi at home in Oberhausen, Germany. She stays with Mrs.V and enjoys swimming, tennis, reading, spaghetti bolognese, and Mrs. V's chocolate cookies. (Don't we all!) She enjoys the Friday electives and our small class size. "The teacher can concentrate on fewer students and not such a big mass."

Suho Jang,(11th)Seoul, Korea, lives with the Crippens, enjoys art, chess, soccer, hip-hop and rock music, Asian noodles, and spaghetti. He appreciates most the kindness of the people of QCCS.

Isabelle Kinne (11th), Isi, left an older sister Susan in Paulus, Germany. Her favorites are cheerleading, meeting friends, music like minimal, house, techno, R&B, and rap and "eating a lot" of foods like "kartoffelpuffer," "Nudeln," and mango. She likes weight lifting class and the nice teachers and pupils at QCCS.

(Front Row) Sofia Gutierrez (10th) has an older brother in Burgos, Spain. Sofia also lives with Mrs.V. She enjoys volleyball, computers, music by Rihanna, salad, fish, Spanish omelets, and meeting with friends.

Joy Zhuo (11th), China, stayed this summer with her uncle, aunt, and cousins in Chicago. She is so happy to be back with the Sullivans and her new sister, Isi. "I love QCCS, my classmates, and teachers."
